

INDIAN HEAD RESORT

180 Acres of Scenic Splendor in the Heart of New Hampshire's Spectacular White Mountains

To Whom it may concern,

Our dear friend, Dan Jolly AKA Buddy the Clown, is a gem. He has worked for the Indian Head Resort for about 5 years. I say friend because he truly is, not only will he come when we get stuck for a kids show, he goes above and beyond the call of duty. When he arrives, fully dressed and prepared, he parades through the dining room and all public areas announcing his presence and his show for that evening. He is like the Pied Piper before you know it he has a crowd of children following on his BIG heels. He plays games and shows the kids Magic and Clown tricks. Always a whole lot of laughing going on. He creates balloons for each child and doesn't stop until each child gets their balloon. This says allot because sometimes there are allot of kids. He is genuinely respectful to all children no matter how challenging an evening (or child) may be. This says allot because there are some children that can be difficult and unruly and Buddy is magic on keeping this under control and fun no matter what.

I would highly recommend Buddy the Clown for any event for Children. He sincerely enjoys what he does, and it shows. Thank you Dan Jolly for all that you do for our guests at Indian Head Resort, I hope we have many more fun years to come.

All the Best,

Peter Spanos
